"Where Everyone Feels At Home"

Our Motto

It has been our desire to establish this place as a retreat where you may find surcease and relief from the everyday cares of life. We don't want you to look upon it as a restaurant, café or cabaret, but as a haven where you will be assured of relaxation and a pleasant hour or two safe in the port of sincere hospitality.

The Destito Family

*A*s we prepare to celebrate a historic milestone of 100 years in business, we would like to thank you, our customers for helping us reach this plateau.

Over the past year, our family has reflected back on how things began in 1908 when our grandparents started this business as a boarding house. Our grandmother cooked breakfast and prepared original recipe dinners for borders at ten cents a day. It was those original family recipes that gave us our start in the restaurant business.

As years have gone by, we have seen the good and bad times, lifestyle changes, up and downs in the economy, and even a loss of jobs; but the one thing that hasn't changed, is the loyalty our customers have shown us for 100 years. Our parents always taught us, "Through the good and bad times of life, just take care of your customers and that path will lead to your success."

There aren't enough words to describe our thankfulness except to say we will always be grateful and mindful of our responsibility to our community and to our customers.

Our family and business has been blessed these first 100 years, and we look forward to our next 100. A sincere, heartfelt ThankYou to our customers and to our employees for their hard work and dedication.

*Sincerely,
The Destito Family*

Savoy Wine List

Table Wines

It is customary in many Italian homes to have wine at the table. We welcome you to share that experience here with our imported Principato Italian Table Wines. We will pour your first glass and then leave the bottle at your table for you to help yourself. We use the honor system and ask at the end of your meal how many glasses you served. Enjoy!
